

Join Your Neighbors for Earth Day Festivities at the Issaquah Farmers' Market.

✿ Information Booths & Displays ✿ Fun Activities for Kids ✿ Classes

Activities for Kids!

- ✿ Decorate Grocery Bags! Come and color a bag with what Earth Day represents to you. Bags donated and used by QFC.
- ✿ Test Your Building Skills at the Home Depot booth!

Information Booth/Displays

- ✿ Getting Around Issaquah Together – GAIT
- ✿ Issaquah Environmental Council
- ✿ King County Noxious Weed Control Program
- ✿ Friends of the Issaquah Salmon Hatchery - FISH
- ✿ East Lake WA Audubon Society
- ✿ King Conservation District
- ✿ Northwest Earth Institute
- ✿ King County Master Recycler Composter Program
- ✿ Partnership for Rural King County
- ✿ Waste Management
- ✿ Save Lake Sammamish

Spring into Gardening

Learn new tricks of the trade from respected local landscaping and weed control professionals. Various classes held in the Jersey Room at the Pickering Barn on Earth Day.

Saturday
April 19, 2008

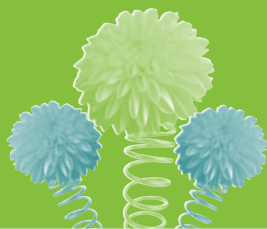

Spring into Gardening

Earth Day
Saturday
April 19, 2008

11:00 AM to Noon
Jersey Room, Pickering Barn

This Season A.C.E. your garden!

Your garden can be more:
Atttractive, Child & pet friendly,
and Economical to maintain

Ladd Smith, co-owner of
In Harmony Sustainable Landscaping, will share tricks of the trade in a one hour class, covering:

- Professional lawn care practices.
- Tips to improve your soil.
- Strategies to cut your summer water bills.
- What's the right plant for the right place?
- Less toxic products for troublesome pests and garden diseases.

Register at 425-837-3428
Resource Conservation Office (RCO)
rco@ci.issaquah.wa.us

Free give-away products to beautify your lawn and garden - such as Worry-Free Slug Bait, Safer's, Weed Hounds, Messenger (roses)... on a first come, first served basis for class attendees.

